Dear Friends,

Each season seems to bring us more excitement, more fun, and more great theatre than the last and our 2019-20 Season is no exception! Whether it’s a safety and entertaining tale on Gilbert and Sullivan, a bawdy adaptation of classics, the return of San Francisco’s best Christmas tradition, or the blossoming of new works, each new season is a wonderful adventure. Get ready for a 2019-2020 season out of this world and we can’t wait to along for the ride.

Alongside our continued favorites, 42nd Street Moon remains committed to making our whole community shine. Our regular patrons have already seen the significant changes to our theatre company ever to produce every single professional stage show by legendary composer Stephen Sondheim.

In what may be the most ambitious season in our history, 42nd Street Moon is producing our most ambitious commitment to the local arts community: The Sonheim Sweep. This will be the most extensive Sonheim experience to date. Featuring three full-scale stage shows by legendary composer Stephen Sondheim. The 2019-2020 Season will present new, bold, bold and beautiful interpretations of his works, with an emphasis on the classics, the standards and the sonhie to which the audience may be unfamiliar.

With so many great new happenings at 42nd Street Moon—new directions in programming and education, great new improvements to the theatre, and, of course, ABSOLUTELY SPECTACULAR SHOWS! We can’t wait for you to be a part of it!
